Workingmen of all shades are particularly interested, and the Central Labor Union has recognized the fact.

At a meeting of the Union held yesterday the padrone system was spoken of. The subject was introduced by Delegate Winston, and that he had the sympathy of all the delegates present was spidenced by the cheers which greeted his utterances. He outlined some of the facts already told in "The Evening Work!"," how the city paid $1.50 per day for laborers to the padrones and—how the latter only paid their unfortunate serfs 15 and 90 cents.

"The matter must be thoroughly investigated," said Delegate Winston, "and although we are not affiliated with the men the padrones engage, we owe them a duty nevertheless, and we should do that and protect them." Next Sunday the Central Labor Union will handle the subject without gloves.

What can now be said of Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews, who
